

Independence Celebrations

At

Punjab Agricultural Research Board Lahore

PARB is observing a 'weekly celebrations for 70th Independence Day of Islamic Republic of Pakistan' with zeal and zest. The whole building is decorated with beautiful Flags and everyone is looking energetic and full of passion and patriotism. Chief Executive PARB, Dr. Noor-ul-Islam Khan, in his address, in a ceremony related to Independence Day said that how after a very long and hard struggle that was full of sacrifices; the Muslims of Sub-Continent achieved a separate homeland on 14th August 1947, in the shape of Pakistan. Talking about the problems which Pakistan is facing today, he said that we have to solve our problems by our own and surely we can do that. He urged for the need that we should be unite and work hard for the betterment of our beloved country in each capacity, as per the mission of our Quaid. Executive Member Coordination, Dr. Muhammad Younis said that this day may be a common day for other nations, but this is most valuable day for Pakistani nation. He demanded the audience to be sincere to this country in each and every way. Executive Member M&E, Dr. Muhammad Abdullah said that it was all due to the strong Pakistan movement that became the base for the creation of Pakistan and converted the impossibilities into the possibilities. Ceremony was ended with declaration to work hard for the prosperity of the country.

Long Live Pakistan!
Pakistan Zindabad!

