

PUNJAB AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH BOARD

Technologies for the Prosperity of Agricultural Stakeholders

INVITATION FOR RESEARCH PROPOSALS

PUNJAB AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH BOARD (PARB) INTENDS TO SOLICIT RESEARCH PROPOSALS THROUGH COMPETITIVE GRANT SYSTEM (CGS)

Projects under Competitive Grant System (CGS), purely applied in nature, with clear cut deliverables on the following key identified themes and high priority research areas:-

- a) Enhance productivity with sustainability of major cropping systems
- b) Promote diversification & commercialization in agriculture
- c) Conserve resources & protect environment
- d) Increase competitiveness by value addition
- e) Cross cutting and knowledge based agriculture policies

The proposals having clear cut deliverables, linkages with agro based industry and commercialization component will be given priority.

Any scientist in public sector institution/university related to Agriculture Research (crops, plants, Livestock & Dairy development, poultry, fisheries, forestry, wildlife, ecology, range management, agricultural engineering and water management) within the province of the Punjab can submit a proposal on the concept clearance proforma/template present on the PARB website (<http://parb.agripunjab.gov.pk>) under the tab "Advertisement". However the collaborators in the project can be from any public or private sector organization from any part of the world. Detailed high priority research Themes and sub themes are available on PARB website.

The hard copies of the project concept papers should be submitted in quadruplicate through proper channel addressed to the Chief Executive, PARB, 72-G Block, Johor Town Lahore and a soft copy of the same must be emailed to parbproposals@gmail.com.

Last date for receiving the proposals is August 30, 2023.

Dr. Abid Mahmood
Chief Executive, PARB, Lahore
042-99333366